

International Business Development

CadvaGlobal accept primary responsibility of identifying new leads, building relationships with new and existing clients, industry professionals and establishing a strong market presence. Specific responsibilities include development of new business opportunities through analysis and interaction with clients, Potential clients, Participate in negotiating business deals and facilitating proposals, executing corporate business development plan in collaboration with units, Coordinate and conduct regular business development activities such as client meetings and attend industry conferences.